Tendai Muparutsa leads a group that infuses Afro-soundscapes with finger picking guitar, all infused with soulful imagination on a musical journey into popular music of Zimbabwe and parts of Africa. This recital brings faculty and students together in the music making process. Tendai teaches African music and dance at Williams College. All music in this performance is composed or arranged by Tendai Muparutsa.

See music.williams.edu for full details and additional happenings as well as to sign up for the weekly e-newsletters.
