

Williams College Department of Music

Timothy Chang '23, violin

Pablo de Sarasate
(1844-1908)

Zigeunerweisen, op. 20

Timothy Chang '23, violin; Edwin Lawrence, piano

Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky
(1840-1893)

Violin Concerto in D Major, op. 35

III. Finale: Allegro vivacissimo

Timothy Chang '23, violin; Timothy Chen '26, piano

Johan Halvorsen
(1864-1935)

Passacaglia for Violin and Cello

Timothy Chang '23, violin; Nicholas Langel '23, cello

Thursday, May 11, 2023
4:30 p.m.

Brooks-Rogers Recital Hall
Williamstown, Massachusetts

Please turn off cell phones.
No photography or recording is permitted.

Timothy Chang '23, a native of the Bay Area, began his violin journey in 2008, developing his skills under the guidance of esteemed mentors Professor Li Lin and Haik Kazazyan. While at Williams, he has had the privilege of studying with Professor Muneko Otani for four years. Timmy is excited to share a selection of his favorite pieces during this recital, including a duet with his friend Nick—a work they've aspired to play together since their pre-Williams days. Outside of violin, Timmy is a physics major, and following graduation, he aspires to explore and extend the frontiers of quantum science and technology through a PhD in Applied Physics at Stanford University.