Brad Wells, director

Conductor, singer, and music educator, Brad Wells has built a thriving choral program at Williams College recognized for its quality of performances and breadth of repertoire. Wells has held conducting positions at Yale University, Trinity College (Hartford, CT), University of California at Berkeley and California State University, Chico. He is in frequent demand and is founder and director of the new music vocal ensemble "Roomful of Teeth" which launches this June at Mass MoCA in North Adams. Wells has directed choirs of all ages and his ensembles have performed throughout the U.S., Mexico and Europe. As a singer he has performed and recorded with such ensembles as Paul Hillier's Theatre of Voices, Philharmonia Baroque Orchestra and the California Choral Company. Also an active composer and arranger, Wells holds degrees in music from Yale University, University of Texas at Austin, and Principia College.

Special thanks to the Music Department staff: Jenny Dewar, Concert and Event Manager, Marilyn Cole-Dostie, assistant to the chair and Michelle Picard, administrative assistant; to David Kechley, Music Department chair; to the Chaplain's Office: Nancy Luczynski, assistant to the Chaplain, Richard Spalding, Chaplain; to Richard McDowell for many hours of work planning this weekend's reunion; to the community members for helping make Spem in alium possible; to all the alumni for returning to join, celebrate and sing with the current singers – you are all missed.
