Bio

Jessica Kopcho '09 is a soprano from Southern California double majoring in music and psychology. At Williams sings in the Concert and Chamber Choirs, takes voice lessons, and sings with the coed a cappella group the Ephlats. She played piano for most of her life, and is "attempting" to learn guitar. Next year she will be an intern music teacher at the International School of Trieste in northern Italy. She rows varsity crew, and in years past ran track and played soccer. She loves food, dancing, traveling, athletics, and has been in two musicals at Williams. She would like to get her Ph.D. in clinical psychology and continue to sing.
