The Handbell Choir is a student-led group advised by Artist-in-Residence Bradley Wells. The ensemble consists of 11 or 12 students and rehearses weekly on a five-octave set of Schulmerich handbells. Repertoire consists of arrangements and original compositions, mostly of secular or seasonal holiday music. The choir participates in the annual Service of Lessons and Carols along with the Concert and Chamber Choirs, and performs in Studio Recitals and at various off-campus locations.
