Georgian Folk Song

Gushin Shvidni Gurjanelni

Yesterday seven Gurjaanians went hunting. They wanted to kill a white ibex to have plenty of meat. They would kill it and have more meat than by hunting other game. We seven Khevsurian brothers went after an ibex on the cliff. Each of the seven of us shot, but none hit the mark. The old grandfather, however, shot and hit the horned ibex.

A maiden is running thorough the dewy meadow. A young man ran by her on his horse and quietly said to her: "Wait, you falcon, slow down, young maiden. I have something to ask you. Do you have a fine belt, or should I buy one for you? Do you have a first love, or should I become that?" She replies: "I have a belt, but no beloved. I want you to be my beloved."
