Abbey Murray-Stark '22 (Stage Manager) is a Theater and English Double Major from Saint Paul, Minnesota. Past theater credits include: Today and Tomorrow (PSM), Radio Dramas (Sound Designer), Purple Valley Plays (SM), The Last Days of Judas Iscariot (ASM).

Yunior Terry-Cabrera (Music) is a bassist, violinist, composer, educator and cultural bearer. Regarded as one of New York City most sought-after bass player, Yunior Terry is recognized for his big sound, versatility, and contagious rhythm. Terry began classical training at age seven in Camagüey, later graduating from the National School of Art (ENA) in Havana with a double major in violin and bass. In Cuba, he performed violin with the National Philharmonic Orchestra. Terry holds a B.A. from California Institute of Arts, M.A. from Rutgers University and is a former Van Lier Fellow. His rich influences were expanded by teachers Charlie Haden, Kenny Davis, Derek Oles (Poland), Rajeev Taranath (India) and Alfred Ladzekpo (Ghana). Terry has taught masterclasses and workshops at Swarnabhoomi Academy of Music, India; Bates College, Monash University, Australia; Harlem School of the Arts; Berklee College of Music; Banff Music Center, Canada; Stanford Jazz Workshop and The New School. Currently Terry is Clinical Assistant Professor of Music at New York University.

Sayda Trujillo was born in Montreal and grew up in Canada, Guatemala, and the USA. ## A THOUSAND WAYS

PART 3: AN ASSEMBLY,
A TIMELY AND INTIMATE
RETURN TO TOGETHERNESS

A Thousand Ways (Part Three): An Assembly brings together an audience of strangers to construct a unique and intimate theatrical event. Using a stack of instructive notecards and a few simple props, this small group of people collectively recount a timeless story of perseverance—of audacity in the face of uncertainty. This elucidating experience invites participants to consider each other—individually and collectively—and the significance of their coming together. This is an invitation. Will you attend?
